ORDER

Before the Court is Heidy Cifuentes Rivera’s petition for writ of habeas corpus and injunctive relief, filed on July 23, 2025. (Doc. 1.) Petitioner seeks habeas corpus relief under 28 U.S.C. § 2241, among other injunctive and declaratory relief, following her May 27, 2025 arrest by U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement agents, and to the extent she has remained in custody following a June 9, 2025 emergency stay of removal granted by the Board of Immigration Appeals while it considers her motion to reopen her immigration case. Petitioner asserts that her detention is unlawful and unconstitutional. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2243, the Court ORDERS that Respondents show cause why the writ should not be granted on or before July 28, 2025.¹

IT IS SO ORDERED.

ROSEANN A. KETCHMARK, JUDGE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DATED: July 23, 2025

¹ Section 2243 requires that a district court either grant an application for writ of habeas corpus or “issue an order directing the respondent to show cause why the writ should not be granted,” which show-cause response “shall be returned within three days unless for good cause additional time, not exceeding twenty days, is allowed.” Because three days from today is Saturday, June 26, 2025, Respondent’s show-cause response is due Monday, July 28, 2025. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(a)(1)(C).
